

Data Ownership and Online Privacy Management in Social Media - 10 Examples

1. Facebook Data Control: Users can manage who sees their posts and download their personal data.
2. Instagram Privacy Settings: Users can switch to private accounts and control followers.
3. WhatsApp End-to-End Encryption: Messages are accessible only to sender and receiver.
4. Twitter (X) Data Sharing: Users can limit data sharing with advertisers.
5. LinkedIn Profile Visibility: Users control what information is public or private.
6. Snapchat Auto-Delete Feature: Messages disappear after viewing, enhancing privacy.
7. Google Account Dashboard: Users can view and manage all stored data.
8. TikTok Privacy Controls: Users can restrict comments, duets, and data visibility.
9. YouTube Watch History Management: Users can delete or pause history tracking.
10. Data Portability (GDPR): Users can request and transfer their data across platforms.