

Social Media Privacy Policies: List, Cases & Examples

1. Key Privacy Policies in Social Media

- 1 Data Collection Policy – Information collected from users (personal data, location, behavior).
- 2 Data Usage Policy – How collected data is used (ads, recommendations, analytics).
- 3 Data Sharing Policy – Sharing data with third parties or partners.
- 4 User Consent Policy – Obtaining permission before collecting or processing data.
- 5 Cookies and Tracking Policy – Use of cookies and tracking technologies.
- 6 Security Policy – Measures to protect user data (encryption, authentication).
- 7 Data Retention Policy – Duration for storing user data.
- 8 User Rights Policy – Rights to access, modify, or delete data.
- 9 Children's Privacy Policy – Protection of minors' data.
- 10 Transparency Policy – Clear communication about privacy practices.

2. Cases & Examples of Privacy Policy Handling

- 1 Case 1: Facebook-Cambridge Analytica Scandal – Improper data sharing led to misuse of user information for political ads.
- 2 Case 2: Instagram Data Tracking – Platform tracks user activity to personalize content and ads.
- 3 Case 3: WhatsApp Privacy Policy Update – Data sharing with parent company raised user concerns.
- 4 Case 4: TikTok Data Concerns – Questions raised on data storage and access by external entities.
- 5 Case 5: Twitter Data Breach – Security lapse exposed user data.
- 6 Case 6: Snapchat Location Sharing – Snap Map raised concerns about real-time location visibility.
- 7 Case 7: LinkedIn Data Scraping – Public profile data was scraped and misused.
- 8 Case 8: YouTube Kids Privacy Issues – Collection of children's data without proper consent.
- 9 Case 9: Google+ Data Exposure – Bug exposed user profile data.
- 10 Case 10: Apple App Tracking Transparency – Users given control over tracking permissions.